General Exhibitor Responsibilities

38. As an exhibitor, please be familiar with the "Rules and Regulations". Exhibitors must strictly follow all rules; and rules will be strictly enforced by the Fair Association officials. An exhibitor who does not respect fair rules will be asked to leave the fairgrounds immediately.

39. No persons will be permitted in the judging ring except judges, attendants and officials.

40. Every reasonable precaution must be taken to safeguard livestock while on exhibition. Owners of livestock, however, must assume all risk for the safety of the animals. Exhibitors of animals, machinery in motion, or other exhibits liable to occasional accidents, injury, or damage to a person will guard their exhibits and protect the public from injury.

41. No responsibility will be assumed by the Fair Association for an injury or damage to persons received on or during the Fair.

42. Each exhibitor is asked to conduct themselves as a protector of the ground and property of the Fair Association and their own exhibits against fire. Notify the office immediately.

44. Every exhibitor must transmit an entry paper to the secretary containing a correct list of animals (s)he intends to exhibit, and in case of purebred animals, owner's name, name of animal, Canadian registry number, date of birth, sire's tattoo or ear tag must be included. No entry will be accepted by the secretary unless the information is complete. This rule will be strictly followed and if false information is given regarding pedigree, not only will all prize monies be forfeited, but the exhibitor will be barred from future exhibitions.

45. All livestock exhibitors will be required to present registration papers for each purebred animal exhibited by them when requested by Fair officials.

46. In the livestock classes, all animals entered must be the bona fide property of and on the premises of the exhibitor 30 days before fair date. Any party loaning animals to an exhibitor knowing it to be for exhibition purposes shall be held equally responsible with the exhibitor. The following are the only exceptions to the rules that an animal can be entered in only one section. A) All first and second placed animals will be eligible to compete in championship classes, barring stallions. B) Individual animals comprising a herd of cattle may be entered in other classes and sections according to age and breed. C) Any animal suffering from contagious disease is barred from entering the Fair ground and if admitted through the gate, will be immediately removed at the owner's expense. The committee may also reject any animal considered unworthy or unfit.

Prize Money

47. Due to inclement weather, prize money may be reduced at the discretion of the Fair Association.

48. The Fair Association will not be responsible to pay prize money if livestock classes do not meet the required criteria established by the Provincial Plowing Match Board. This rule will be strictly monitored and followed.
